

Hello, I'm

Sarah Sicheneder

FOUNDER, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Sarah Sicheneder is the founder of Everbright Legacy Law PLLC. She practices in the areas of estate planning, wills, estate and trust administration, and guardianship and conservatorship cases. Sarah has a passion for helping people. She is dedicated and persistent in helping her clients navigate through the process of identifying core issues in order to find the optimal solution for their situation and giving them peace of mind.

Sarah enjoys giving back to the community and volunteers at Tubman, Minnesota's largest provider of domestic violence shelter services, as well as Wills for Heroes, an organization that provides legal services free of charge to our nation's first responders.

Those who know me well say that I'm:

- Independent – I've always been willing to take on a big project by myself. I know deep inside that I have the inner strength to overcome any obstacle. I don't stop until I find the right solution to any problem.
- Passionate – I care deeply about helping others. I have an innate desire to take care of those who are alone, downtrodden, and have nowhere to turn. Call me a champion of the underdog. I will fight for those who can't fight for themselves.
- Sharp – It doesn't take me long to figure things out. I can sift through the noise and unnecessary details to get to the core of the issue. Because of my strategic approach, I can visualize multiple scenarios and their respective outcomes, and eventually find the optimal solution to any problem.

I chose to become an attorney because my dad was one. Ever since I can remember, I've admired his unwavering dedication to those who trusted him with their problems. Watching him, I realized that attorneys have the ability to make a significant difference in people's lives.
