

Hello, I'm

Becky J. Hedican

ACCOUNTING MANAGER

Becky Hedican leads accounting operations at Everbright Legacy Law. She helps clients understand their invoices, supports prompt and clear payment processes, and works to strengthen the long-term relationships that are at the heart of the firm. Becky strives to address client needs promptly and effectively.

There is a quiet satisfaction in numbers that line up perfectly. For Becky, accounting is one of the few areas in life where everything can fall neatly into place, with no ambiguity and no guesswork. The rhythm of tracking, checking, correcting, and finally landing on zero feels like solving a puzzle where every piece has a single right place.

What motivates her most, though, is the team itself. Becky is driven by the opportunity to support the talented people at Everbright Legacy Law, knowing that their work has a real and lasting impact on the families they serve.

Outside of work, Becky's greatest accomplishment is raising two daughters who are caring, compassionate, kind, and fiercely independent. Seven words that describe her: loyal, funny, sarcastic, independent, organized, patient, and giving to a fault. She also has a little bit of mischief in her.

When she's not working, Becky enjoys spending time with friends and family, especially her grandchildren.
