

Hello, I'm

Katie M. Brennan

FIRM ADMINISTRATOR

With an MBA and extensive experience in organizational operations, Katie has built her career on driving company efficiency, team collaboration, and strategic growth. Her background includes leadership roles across both public and private sectors, where she has led initiatives to streamline processes and enhance internal productivity.

She currently serves as a Firm Administrator, overseeing day-to-day operations, managing key administrative functions, and ensuring our team has the support and structure needed to thrive. She is passionate about building people-centered workplaces where both staff and leadership feel empowered to do their best work.

In her personal life, Katie is married, has one son and a dog, and enjoys spending time with her family. She finds joy in creating a well-balanced life where both personal and professional commitments are met with care and intention.
