

Hello, I'm

Tami L. Fisher

TRUST FUNDING PARALEGAL

As a Trust Funding Paralegal at Everbright Legacy Law, Tami helps ensure clients' trusts are properly funded and their assets are correctly titled. She works alongside clients to compile asset documents and then organizes and prepares the funding and financial paperwork sent to financial institutions on their behalf, simplifying what can be a complex part of the estate planning process.

Tami's working style is supportive and collaborative.

Tami holds a Legal Secretary Diploma from Northeast Metropolitan Technical College, an Associate of Science in Paralegal Studies from Inver Hills Community College, and a Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies from Kaplan University.

Those who know Tami well describe her as:

- Considerate – She is kind to everyone she meets.
- Diligent – She is determined to complete each task in a timely fashion
- Optimistic – She looks forward to the future and prefers not to dwell on the negative.

Tami has worked as both a legal assistant and paralegal at the firm in order to support the team, expand her knowledge of elder law, estate planning, and trust funding, in order to contribute to the firm's success. Tami also has prior experience as a legal professional having worked in multiple areas of law in both public and private entities.

She is motivated by trust in her team and the meaningful, interesting, and challenging work they do together for clients.

Tami is a strong believer in self-care and makes regular trips to the gym a priority, recognizing how important it is to care for yourself amid everyday stress.
