

Randy Boggio

PARTNER, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Randy Boggio is a partner at Everbright Legacy Law and represents clients with special needs and their families in establishing and administering Supplemental and Special Needs Trusts. He works with personal injury attorneys to assure protection of settlement awards and jury verdicts for disabled clients through settlement planning, as well as working with probate and family law attorneys to provide trusts that protect estate distributions and property settlements.

Randy is also known for representing clients in all areas of long-term care planning. He enjoys working with individuals, couples, and their families to ensure resources are protected and maximized for their benefit when faced with nursing home placement.

Randy has been recognized with the Mary Alice Gooderl Award by the Elder Law Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association for outstanding service to the community in the area of Elder Law. In 2018, he was inducted into the Minnesota State Bar Association's Elder Law Section Hall of Fame. He has been named in statewide surveys to the Minnesota Super Lawyers list since 1998. Randy has received an AV® Preeminent™ 5.0 out of 5 rating in Martindale-Hubbell, a national legal directory.

ABOUT EVERBRIGHT LEGACY LAW

We believe no one should face complex legal questions alone. Our mission is to walk alongside our clients through unfamiliar processes, providing education, resources, and legal experience so you can make informed decisions with confidence. Whether you're planning for your future, caring for an aging loved one, or managing disability needs, we're your trusted partners committed to dignity, respect, and peace of mind.