

Sarah Sicheneder

FOUNDER, ATTORNEY AT LAW

Sarah Sicheneder is the founder of Everbright Legacy Law. She practices in the areas of estate planning, wills, estate and trust administration, and guardianship and conservatorship cases. Sarah has a passion for helping people. She is dedicated and persistent in helping her clients navigate the process of identifying core issues in order to find the optimal solution for their situation, giving them peace of mind.

Sarah enjoys giving back to the community and volunteers at Tubman, Minnesota's largest provider of domestic violence shelter services, as well as Wills for Heroes, an organization that provides legal services free of charge to our nation's first responders.

Those who know Sarah well describe her as:

- Independent – She has always been willing to take on a big project by herself. She knows deep inside that she has the inner strength to overcome any obstacle, and she doesn't stop until she finds the right solution to any problem.
- Passionate – She cares deeply about helping others and has an innate desire to take care of those who are alone, downtrodden, and have nowhere to turn. She is a champion of the underdog who will fight for those who can't fight for themselves.
- Sharp – It doesn't take her long to figure things out. She can sift through the noise and unnecessary details to get to the core of the issue. Because of her strategic approach, she can visualize multiple scenarios and their respective outcomes and find the optimal solution to any problem.

Sarah chose to become an attorney because her dad was one. For as long as she can remember, she has admired his unwavering dedication to those who trusted him with their problems. Watching him, she realized that attorneys have the ability to make a significant difference in people's lives.
